

As we read in Psalms 110 Verse 3 we find the following statement revealed by the Lord which contains a prophecy concerning our day which says, "Your people will voluntarily present himself on the day of the Battle.". Serving voluntarily has always been an identifying mark of the early Latter-day Saints whose church in the early days of the Restoration was not limited to supporting missionaries.

But the whole church itself was one big hive of missionaries. all the members wherever they were from whatever age they are children, young adults, or seniors they thought they had received more than a divine call, when called upon to spread the truth of the Book of Mormon. But they felt they were privileged and significant part of human history on earth.

Telling you the good news that they were given to understand. So as followers of Jesus in the first century AD, First Invitation Mormons in the early days of the Restoration were as active in preaching the Book of Mormon as they were in the first in keeping its commandments?

The historical records of 19th-century church periodicals are evidence that they undertook the task of taking this message to all men as seriously as they literally made it a part of their daily lives by making Book of Mormon evangelism a foundation; all the more important as it was for a Presbyterian or Baptist to share the message of the Bible with his kin and neighbors.

And friends, what were the results of that selfless work of the Saints of the first days the restoration? They soon traveled roads, rivers and seas reaching any and all villages, cities, provinces and distant countries. Over time the whole world became a seedbed for this new religion. It was propagated throughout creation under heaven by first invitation Mormons. And that was only possible because those first witnesses of the Prophet Joseph Smith and the truth of the Book of Mormon willingly made themselves available to serve the Call of God, to preach this good news to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people.

A similar spirit should now prevail among Mormons since this second invitation. Appropriately their Prophet who also speaks to you now stated at the November 2022 conference. The time has come for every member to be a Missionary. And each Apostle be an example of this for each member of this second call. Nonetheless What happened after this meeting was the opposite. Some of the Apostles themselves leaving the plow aside and disappearing from social networks.

Mainly with regard to the subject related to the revelation of April 2022 on homosexuality. As if they were ashamed to admit that God opened the shackles of prejudice that chained our brothers in the LGBT community for a long time in relation to the Sublime love of God for all his sons and daughters, that he was never a respecter of persons.

Now however again Mormon exhortations from the Sealed Book gathered to hear me here today. Come back, go back to the field. Put on your armor. Be sober, active watchers, bold and constant valiant, be faithful and true witnesses of the work that God is doing with the revelation given to you with the translation of the Sealed Book of the Plates of Mormon. So that they are worthy to receive the second part that has yet to be revealed. Advance proceed with this love in the fight until every vestige of Babylon is devastated. Proclaim the message to all parts of the earth. The world needs to know what Jesus is doing among the children of men at this very moment in our human history on earth. This is without a doubt a day to announce the good will of the Lord.

There was this one that is of great importance to all of us who have been called for the last time to get their church out of the obscurity of the Land of Darkness. In view of this I would like to add to all that the prophets have already said about our day. That if we leave aside the preaching of the Sealed Book and the current revelations that come to us at all times for the support our religion, we will have nothing and we will be nothing. And beyond that, we will still be denying our earthly brothers the possibilities they have, the most Sublime knowledge of all time which God in his infinite wisdom foreordained to be sealed and hidden in plates of gold to be revealed to us poor mortals of the 21st century.

You are God's publicity agents. What will you do to let the world know about it? thanks
